Nate Kauffman
Senior Vice President and
Omaha Branch Executive

In his role as the Bank's lead economist and representative in the state of Nebraska, Nate Kauffman provides strategic direction and oversight for the Omaha Branch, regional research, and economic outreach throughout the state.

In addition, Nate is the Kansas City Fed's principal expert in agricultural economics. He is a leading voice on the agricultural economic throughout the seven states of the Tenth Federal Reserve District and the broader Federal Reserve System.

About the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City

The Federal Reserve Act in 1913 established a framework for a decentralized central bank, one that included a regional structure of 12 Reserve Banks around the country. The Act also extended that regional presence by providing for Branch offices. The Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City serves seven states: Kansas, western Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Wyoming, Colorado and northern New Mexico. There are three Branches in the Tenth District in Denver, Oklahoma City and Omaha.

The Kansas City Fed works in the public's interest by supporting economic and financial stability.

Omaha Branch Board of Directors

Each Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City has its own seven-member Board of Directors. Four directors are appointed by the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, and three are appointed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in Washington, D.C. Branch directors serve three-year terms and provide their respective Branch executives with insight on regional economic conditions as well as offer advice and counsel.
