www.kansascityfed.org

The Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City offers many challenging and rewarding career opportunities in the financial services industry. As a member of the Federal Reserve team, you will be offered diverse assignments that will challenge you and develop your skills. We reward strong performers with increasingly complex assignments and promotional opportunities. Individuals who demonstrate strong leadership skills may quickly take a lead role and may earn the opportunity to assume a leadership position within the organization.

The Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City has supervisory and regulatory authority over a wide range of banking institutions and activities within the Tenth Federal Reserve District. We work with other federal and state supervisory authorities to ensure the safety and soundness of banking institutions and fair and equitable treatment of consumers in financial transactions.

Financial Examiners help assess the financial stability of more than 150 commercial banks and nearly 900 bank and savings and loan holding companies located throughout our District by evaluating the risk profile of a bank, assessing multiple aspects of its financial condition, determining the effectiveness of management oversight, and reviewing compliance with banking laws and regulations.

Key Activities Include:

- Travel to state member banks (up to 50%) with a team of examiners to determine if operations are safe and sound and in compliance with laws and regulations.
- Analyze state member bank's financial condition, evaluate operational and lending functions, assess compliance with laws and regulations, and review compliance with internal policies and procedures.
- Conduct meetings with bank management and prepare written reports of examination findings.

Required Education and Skills:

- Bachelor's degree in finance, accounting, economics or a related field.
- Strong written and verbal communication, analytical, and leadership skills.
- Demonstrates personal initiative and enjoys working in a team atmosphere.
- Proficient computer skills in programs including, but not limited to, Word, Excel, Internet, and e-mail applications.

Position Specific Requirements:

- This position requires access to confidential supervisory information, access to which is limited to "Protected Individuals" as defined by regulation of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Protected Individuals include, but are not limited to, U.S. citizens, U.S. nationals, and lawful permanent resident aliens (also known as "green card holders") who are eligible for and seeking United States citizenship within the requisite timeframes.
- Bank employees may not own or control, directly or indirectly, any debt or equity interest in a depository institution and, in certain assignments, in a primary dealer of government securities. A "depository institution" means a bank, a trust company, or any institution that accepts deposits, including a bank chartered under the laws of a foreign country. This restriction also applies to an employee's spouse or minor child. Prospective hires will be required to abide by this restriction and may be asked to divest of their financial holdings that do not meet this restriction as a condition of employment.
