

DARYL OLDVADER
Chief Executive Officer
FCS Financial

Daryl Oldvader is a fourth generation farmer raised on a grain and livestock farm near Brunswick, Mo. In 1972, he graduated from the University of Missouri's College of Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources with honors in agricultural economics. That same year, he began his career at Farm Credit Services. Moving quickly through the ranks, Mr. Oldvader served as a credit representative and branch manager before becoming CEO.

Mr. Oldvader's commitment to Farm Credit spans 40 years, with 36 of those as CEO. His dedication to agriculture and rural America runs just as deep. He has served on many Farm Credit bank committees as well as state and national boards including the Governor's Task Force on 21st Century Agriculture and the Governor's Advisory Council on Agriculture. In 2002, Mr. Oldvader was named Alumnus of the Year for the College of Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources at the University of Missouri, Columbia.

Mr. Oldvader currently serves on the Vice Chancellor's Leadership Council for the College. In 2006, he was recognized by the Missouri Vocational Agriculture Teachers as an outstanding cooperator for his work with FFA and vocational agricultural students. He has received Honorary American and State FFA degrees. Additionally, he holds an honorary membership in the Missouri Young Farmers Association and is a member of the board of directors for Missouri's Agricultural Leadership of Tomorrow (ALOT).
