

Mohammed Hamdaoui

Vice President

Rystad Energy

Mohammed Hamdaoui is a vice president on Rystad Energy's Renewables and Power Markets team. He is responsible for providing renewables and power expertise focused on the North Americas power market, including the United States, Canada and Mexico. His responsibilities include coverage of power generation assets, including project economics, LCOE and project pipeline, analysis of supply and demand as well as power pricing analysis.