Mark Greene
Chief Executive Officer,
Fair Isaac Corporation

Dr. Greene was named chief executive officer of Fair Isaac Corporation (FICO) in February 2007. He previously spent 12 years with IBM, where he was a leader in the company's financial services industry segment and software business groups. He served as vice president of sales for Financial Services. He also served as general manager of the Banking unit. Earlier, he focused on IBM's software strategy, co-founding the e-commerce initiative now known as WebSphere. Prior to IBM, he served in leadership roles with financial technology firms Technology Solutions Company, Berkeley Investment Technologies and Citicorp. He began his career in 1982 at the Federal Reserve Board, where he served as economist and assistant director of research.
