

SHOPPING WISELY WITH
Olivia Owl

Rhoda Roadrunner dashed down the aisle of the Frequent Flyer Market. She crashed into Olivia Owl, and Olivia and her food flew into the air.

"Well, it's almost dinner time and I need to pick up food for my chicks. I want to buy some bird treats for dessert, and something else I can't remember..." said Rhoda.

“Rhoda, it might be easier if you prepared a list before you shopped,” said Olivia.

“I’ve learned if you plan to save, your nest egg will increase in the future,” replied Penny.

Olivia hooted and proudly announced, "Whooo is the wisest shopper? Rhoda Roadrunner, that's who!"

The money moral is: If you plan and compare before shopping, you will use your money more wisely.
