Outlook Themes

• In March and April, the global “shutdowns” connected to COVID-19 had a devastating economic impact.

• Economic conditions have improved somewhat since April, and the impact in Nebraska has been less than elsewhere.

• Some industries and households have been affected more than others, however, and much about the recovery remains uncertain.
Prior to COVID-19, the U.S. economy was in the midst of its longest expansion on record.

Concluding remarks

• The virus, and associated risks, will shape the path back to the summit.

• The path to reclaim the summit, however, may be unsteady, longer than expected, filled with surprises... And tiring.

• We may also find that we have arrived at a very different mountaintop.
