

Kashif Riaz, managing director, is a portfolio manager with BlackRock's Fixed Income Group. He focuses on U.S. credit on behalf of active fixed income mandates spanning pensions, mutual funds and absolute return funds. While at BlackRock Mr. Riaz most recently had been a portfolio manager in the Financial Institutions Group and prior to that he was the head of investment grade credit in the Global Capital Markets team.

Prior to joining BlackRock in 2010, Mr. Riaz spent over 12 years at J.P. Morgan, spanning investment banking coverage and debt capital markets. His experience ranges from corporate finance advisory assignments and M&A transactions, acquisition financings, equity offerings and bond offerings.