

Mine Yücel, senior vice president and senior research advisor, joined the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas in 1989. Her focus is on regional growth and energy issues. Ms. Yücel previously was the bank's director of research, head of the micro/regional/energy group and director of publications.

Ms. Yücel is president of the National Association for Business Economics and a member of the boards for the Global Interdependence Center and the University of Texas at Dallas Energy Board. Before joining the Dallas Fed, she was an assistant professor of economics at Louisiana State University.