

10TH DISTRICT KEY FACTS

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF KANSAS CITY

The Federal Reserve System identifies regional Reserve Banks with district numbers. As the regional headquarters of the nation's central bank, the Kansas City Fed is identified as the 10th District.

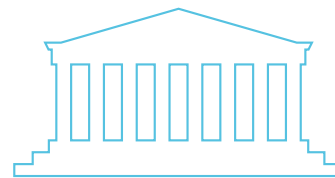

KEY INDUSTRIES:

-  Energy
-  Agriculture
-  Aerospace
-  Professional and Business Services
-  Transportation
-  Leisure and Hospitality

2ND
LARGEST DISTRICT
in geographic area served (over 500,000 square miles)

18.5
MILLION RESIDENTS
across a 7-state region

16 MINORITY DEPOSITORY INSTITUTIONS
are headquartered in the 10th District

750+
MEMBER BANKS AND BANK HOLDING
COMPANIES (we supervise)

 Our District accounts for nearly 20%
of annual U.S. crop and livestock revenues

As of the end of 2021,

30%
of all commercial agricultural banks were headquartered in our District

District states produced approximately 13.5% of U.S. oil and gas (measured in barrel of oil equivalents)