

THE FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF RICHMOND

RICHMOND ■ BALTIMORE ■ CHARLOTTE

Post Office Box 27622 · Richmond, VA 23261

Office 804-697-8000 · www.richmondfed.org

KIMBERLY ZEULI is the assistant vice president and officer of the Community Affairs Office at the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. The Community Affairs division identifies and addresses a broad spectrum of challenges confronting low- and moderate-income communities in the Federal Reserve's Fifth District.

Kimberly has diverse experience in international and domestic community development issues. Prior to joining the Federal Reserve, she was an assistant professor at the University of Wisconsin's Agricultural and Applied Economics Department and a visiting professor for the College of William and Mary's Economics Department. She has also served as a consultant to numerous businesses, and was a research director and business consultant at the Corporate Executive Board in Washington, D.C.

A graduate of Vassar College, Kimberly earned a masters and doctorate in Applied Economics from the University of Minnesota. She is a member of the American Agricultural Economics Association and the American Economics Association.