FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF KANSAS CITY ANNOUNCES OFFICER PROMOTIONS

The following promotions were recently announced by Thomas M. Hoenig, president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City:

Kristi Coy has been promoted to vice president over the PeopleSoft Support Center. Kristi joined the Bank in 1991 as an analyst in the Public Affairs Department. She held analyst and supervisory responsibilities in the Electronic Payments, Customer Service and Savings Bonds Departments before being promoted to manager of Savings Bonds in 1998. In 2002, she became manager in the Financial Management Department and was appointed assistant vice president in 2003. Kristi holds a B.S. degree in mathematics from Central Missouri State University and an M.B.A. from Rockhurst University. She is a graduate of the BAI Graduate School of Banking at Vanderbilt University.

Stephanie Stratemeier has been appointed assistant vice president with official responsibility for the Bank's Customer Contact Center. She joined the Bank in 1997 as an analyst in the Corporate Services Department and held various supervisory positions in Cash Services, Public Affairs and the Customer Relations and Support Office. In 2004, she assumed a manager position. Stephanie holds a B.S. degree in business administration and accounting and an M.B.A. from the University of Kansas.

The Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City and its branches in Denver, Oklahoma City and Omaha serve the Tenth Federal Reserve District: Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Wyoming, northern New Mexico and the western third of Missouri.
