KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI - The Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City announces the following director election results and appointments to fill seats on its headquarters office and Branch boards of directors. All appointments are effective Jan. 1, 2024.

Kansas City Directors

At the Kansas City headquarters office, Susan Chapman Plumb, board chair and chief executive officer, Local Bank, Hulbert, Okla., was elected to a three-year term by Group 1 banks as a Class A director, representing commercial banks that are members of the Federal Reserve System. Ms. Chapman Plumb previously served on the Oklahoma City Branch Board of Directors from 2017-2022.

Ruben Alonso III, chief executive officer, AltCap, Kansas City, Mo., was reelected to serve a three-year term by Group 2 banks as a Class B director, representing the public.

In addition, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System redesignated Patrick A. Dujakovich, president, Greater Kansas City AFL-CIO, Kansas City, Mo., as the Kansas City Fed board of directors chair for 2024.

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System also designated Jandel Allen-Davis, president and chief executive officer, Craig Hospital, Englewood, Colo., as deputy chair for 2024.

Members of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City’s head office board of directors represent the Tenth Federal Reserve District which includes Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Wyoming, northern New Mexico and western Missouri.

The Kansas City board consists of three directors who are elected by and represent commercial banks that are members of the Federal Reserve System, three who represent the public and are elected by member banks, and three who represent the public and are appointed by the Federal Reserve Board of Governors in Washington. The authority of a Reserve Bank’s board of directors is established by the Federal Reserve Act, which provides that the work of each Reserve Bank “shall be conducted under the supervision and control of a board of directors” and that directors “shall perform the duties usually appertaining to the office of directors of banking associations and all such duties as are prescribed by law.” Directors meet throughout the year to confer on developments in their industries and the economy and to oversee the Bank’s operations and policies. The directors also are responsible for establishing the Bank’s discount rate, subject to review and determination by the Federal Reserve Board of Governors.
