

Contact Public Affairs

January 04, 2015

Contact the Public Affairs team for media inquiries, speaker requests and more.

Media Inquiries

The Public Affairs department is the source for media contacts at the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City. Members of the media may e-mail or call Bill Medley at 816-881-2556 for information.

Other Inquiries

The Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City has economists available to speak with reporters on a number of topics related to the national and regional economy, monetary policy, agricultural economics, payments issues, and banking. For more information about the economists, including bios and their recent research, visit our research website. To request a speaker, please complete our speaker request form. To reach any of these sources, please contact Bill Medley at 816-881-2556.

View our research staff for their area of expertise.
