

Federal Reserve Banks operating as scheduled during December holidays

December 19, 2025

The Kansas City Fed will remain open on Dec. 24 and Dec. 26, 2025.

The Kansas City Fed and all Federal Reserve Banks will be open and operational on Wednesday, Dec. 24, and Friday, Dec. 26.

Federal government agencies will be closed on those dates due to an executive action. Because the Federal Reserve Banks are not government agencies and have critical operational responsibilities, they will remain open and operating. Visit frbservices.org for a full holiday schedule: <https://www.frbservices.org/about/holiday-schedules>
