

2026 Services Survey Archive

January 01, 2026

The Kansas City Fed's monthly Survey of Tenth District Services provides information on current services activity in the Tenth Federal Reserve District. This is the archive for 2026 research.

Tenth District Services Activity Increased Further in February

by Cortney Cowley and Megan Williams

Feb. 27, 2026

Tenth District services activity increased further in February, and expectations for future services activity remained positive. Input and selling price growth eased from last month and from this time last year.

Tenth District Services Activity Rose Modestly in January

by Cortney Cowley and Megan Williams

Jan. 23, 2026

Tenth District services activity rose modestly in January, and expectations for future services activity edged higher. Selling prices accelerated from last month, while input price growth remained steady.
