

INROADS Reception

January 04, 2015

The reception honored both current participants and graduates of the INROADS program. Kansas City Mayor Sly James gave the keynote address and many participants were honored with achievement awards for their work with the program.
