

Economic Research

February 01, 2021

We support you as you support our economy.

Our research teams advise the Bank's President, Boards of Directors and other senior management on monetary policy, banking, payments and regional economic issues related to the Federal Reserve System's dual mandate to promote maximum employment and price stability.

Our research staff conducts innovative research on monetary policy, the payments system, and regional and community issues.

Positions Include:

- Economist
- Research Associate
- Ph.D. Dissertation Intern

Job Opportunities:

Search job opportunities here.
