RAY WYSE

Senior Director – Trading and Research, Gavilon Group, LLC

Ray Wyse is senior director of Trading and Economic Research at The Gavilon Group, LLC, a leading agriculture and energy commodity management firm. Mr. Wyse joined Gavilon in 2007 as a proprietary trader. He has since assumed the duties of leading the Economic Research function and serving on the Strategic Risk Committee.

From 1991 to 2007, Mr. Wyse operated in the global agricultural marketplace in North America and Europe with Archer Daniels Midland Company. His responsibilities ranged from sourcing canola on the Canadian prairies to managing one of the largest fully integrated oilseed processing facilities in Europe. In 2000, he relocated from the offices of Toepfer International in Hamburg, Germany, to ADM's corporate headquarters in Decatur, Illinois, managing risk in the oilseeds, grains, energy, and foreign exchange markets within the Global Risk Management group.

Mr. Wyse has served on the board of directors of the Winnipeg Commodity Exchange and the Seed Crushers and Oilseed Processors Association of the United Kingdom (SCOPA). He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in business management from Central College in Pella, Iowa.
