Announcing my LinkedIn Learning eCourse:

“Inclusive Leadership”

This 1-hour virtual course is full of data, stats, & strategies that will teach leaders how to cultivate a more inclusive and high-performing workplace culture. Register today!

Available on LinkedIn Learning offers over 10,000 virtual courses on business, leadership, tech, and more, all taught by industry experts.

Learn more at...

www.drshirleydavis.com/virtual-success-center
Join global workforce management expert, Dr. Shirley Davis, as she shares how to create and lead an organization that leverages the diverse talents of all contributors. Dr. Davis reveals the benefits of inclusive leadership, including the positive impacts it can have on employee engagement, innovation, and creativity. She then outlines a best practice framework for developing inclusive leaders in an organization, and shares tips for avoiding common leadership pitfalls. Upon wrapping up this course, you’ll be equipped with practical strategies you can use to cultivate a more inclusive workforce.

Topics Covered:

- Business case for inclusive leadership
- Redefining leadership
- Innovation, creativity, & inclusion
- Six key traits of inclusive leaders
- Best practices for inclusive organizations
- Competencies of inclusive leaders
- Scenarios for leading inclusively
- Personal application/action plan

Dr. Shirley Davis brings more than 20 years of experience as an executive in talent management, HR strategy, leadership development, and global diversity & inclusion. She has worked in several Fortune 100 global corporations, as well as with government agencies, higher education, and community organizations. She’s a highly sought-after thought leader, international keynote speaker, consultant, executive coach, & the author of several books.