FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF KANSAS CITY ANNOUNCES OFFICER PROMOTION

The following promotion was recently announced by Thomas M. Hoenig, president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City:

Kevin Moore has been promoted to senior vice president of the Bank's Supervision and Risk Management (SRM) division. Kevin joined the Bank in 1982 as an examiner and was promoted to assistant vice president over Credit and Risk Management in 2000 and to vice president in 2003, where he most recently oversaw Examinations and Inspections. He has managed several departments in the SRM division and has held various national leadership roles in the Supervision, Discount Window and Statistics areas. Kevin received a B.S. in business management from Northwest Missouri State University and an M.B.A. from Rockhurst University in Kansas City, Mo. He also graduated with honors from the Stonier Graduate School of Banking.

The Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City and its branches in Denver, Oklahoma City and Omaha serve the Tenth Federal Reserve District: Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Wyoming, northern New Mexico and the western third of Missouri.
