FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF KANSAS CITY ANNOUNCES OFFICER PROMOTION

The following promotion was recently announced by Thomas Hoenig, president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City:

Kristina Young has been promoted to vice president with responsibility for the Public Affairs and Community Affairs departments. She joined the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City in 2001 and worked in the Accounting and Financial Management departments before transferring to Public Affairs in 2003. She was appointed assistant vice president in 2006, and in 2009, she took on additional responsibility as assistant secretary to the bank's board of directors. She holds a bachelor's of science degree in mass communication and broadcasting from Northwest Missouri State University and an MBA in finance from Rockhurst University.
