FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF KANSAS CITY ANNOUNCES
APPOINTMENT TO THE DENVER BRANCH BOARD

The Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City has appointed a new director, Mark Zaback of Jonah Bank of Wyoming, to its Denver Branch Board of Directors.

Zaback, president, CEO and board member of Jonah Bank of Wyoming, has been appointed to an unexpired portion of a three-year term that expires December 31, 2010. Jonah Bank of Wyoming has branches in Casper and Cheyenne and, as of December 2009, had total assets of $134 million and 44 employees.

The Denver Branch is one of three branches of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City. The Branch provides services to financial institutions and the public in Colorado, Wyoming and northern New Mexico. The Branch board is comprised of seven directors, four of whom are appointed by the Kansas City Board of Directors; the remaining three are appointed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in Washington, D.C. Directors meet monthly to confer on economic and financial developments and operational matters.
