KANSAS CITY FED NAMES FEDERAL ADVISORY COUNCIL APPOINTMENT

The Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City has appointed Leslie R. Andersen, president and chief executive officer of Bank of Bennington, Bennington, Neb., as its representative to the Federal Advisory Council, representing the Tenth Federal Reserve District. The appointment is effective Jan. 1, 2016.

The Federal Advisory Council is established by the Federal Reserve Act and includes one representative from each of the 12 Federal Reserve districts. Members meet four times per year in Washington and consult with and advise the Federal Reserve Board of Governors on all matters under the Board's jurisdiction. Council members are eligible for three, one-year terms.

As the regional headquarters of the nation's central bank, the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City and its branches in Denver, Oklahoma City and Omaha serve the seven states of the Tenth Federal Reserve District: Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Wyoming, northern New Mexico and western Missouri. More information on the role and structure of the Bank's advisory councils and boards of directors is available on the Kansas City Fed's website.
