KANSAS CITY FED NAMES ADVISORY COUNCIL APPOINTMENTS

The Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City has announced two appointments to its Community Development Advisory Council for 2018. The council, composed of community, business and labor leaders from the Kansas City Fed’s seven-state region, advises the Kansas City Fed on current developments and emerging issues in community and economic development. The new appointments include:

- Marcos A. Hernandez, vice president-corporate social responsibility, community development manager and CRA, US Bank, Omaha, Neb.

Council members, who serve three-year terms, offer year-round insight on economic and community development issues and meet twice a year with the Kansas City Fed’s leadership.

As the regional headquarters of the nation’s central bank, the Kansas City Fed and its branches in Denver, Oklahoma City and Omaha serve the Tenth Federal Reserve District: Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Wyoming, northern New Mexico and western Missouri.
