FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF KANSAS CITY ANNOUNCES OFFICER PROMOTION

KANSAS CITY, MO. – Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City President and Chief Executive Officer Esther George recently announced the following officer appointment:

Christina Robertson has been appointed assistant vice president and Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) officer in Human Resources. She previously served as senior counsel and as a privacy and compliance officer in the Bank’s Legal Division.

In this role, Robertson will bring her experience and expertise in compliance programs to provide strategic leadership for a range of workforce programs such as equal employment practices, policies and leave administration.

Robertson joined the Bank in 2015 as a member of the Legal Division to develop and implement the Bank’s compliance programs and served as compliance officer. Prior to joining the Bank, her career included experience as legal counsel for regulatory and compliance programs across healthcare, finance and insurance industries. She holds a J.D. from the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law, a M.B.A. from the University of Colorado at Denver, and a B.A. in history from the Metropolitan State College of Denver.

As the regional headquarters of the nation’s central bank, the Kansas City Fed and its branch offices in Denver, Oklahoma City and Omaha serve the seven states of the Tenth District: Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Wyoming, northern New Mexico and western Missouri.
